

Series : Sacred Sites

Episode Title	Content Type	Footage	Duration	Prod	LANGUAGE	RIGHTS WW	BROADCAST						Synopsis
Bethphage (Part 1)	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French	except Poland 3/2020	SK	PL			US	UK		Bethphage is the starting point for Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday memorial day. The village of Bethphage is located between Bethany and the Mount of Olives in the holy city of Jerusalem. Bethphage is marked by the Bethphage Church which contains a stone traditionally identified as that used by Jesus to ride the donkey at the beginning of his procession in Jerusalem
Bethphage (Part 2)	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French	except Poland 3/2020	SK	PL			US	UK		Bethphage is the starting point for Jesus' triumphal entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday memorial day. The village of Bethphage is located between Bethany and the Mount of Olives in the holy city of Jerusalem. Bethphage is marked by the Bethphage Church which contains a stone traditionally identified as that used by Jesus to ride the donkey at the beginning of his procession in Jerusalem
El-Jazzar, The White Mosque in Akko	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English						US	UK	SEA	And here it is, the Al Jazzar Mosque, with its splendid minaret of stones that stands in the sky and seems to speak to the clouds. It bears the name of its founder, Ahmed El-Jazzar who built the most beautiful buildings in the city and is buried in the courtyard of the mosque. El Jazzar Mosque is the second largest Mosque in Israel after the Al-Aqsa Mosque. We are in Akko, first port of the Eastern Mediterranean and advanced post of Western Christendom during the 12th century...
Emmaus Nicopolis Monastery	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French	*								The village of Emmaus is well known for having been the place of one of the most moving appearances of Christ after his resurrection. Indeed, two disciples of Jesus are abbot by his death, they begin a march from Jerusalem to Emmaus. They meet a stranger who takes care of their concerns, can give them a writing lesson that makes their heart burner....
Holy Trinity Cathedral	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2017	English, French									In the heart of Jerusalem, just steps from the Old City walls, a large and imposing cathedral, with steeples and domes, stands out from the rest of the buildings. The Holy Trinity Cathedral is one of the most ornate churches in Jerusalem and its location so close to the Old City makes it an ideal stop for pilgrims traveling to Israel on the Holy Land tours...
Monastery Carmel Pater Noster	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French		SK				US	UK		Holy Places returns to Jerusalem, and takes you to the Mount of Olives, also known as Ascension Mount, to visit the Pater Noster Church in East Jerusalem. This church originally bore the name of Basilica of Eleona. Indeed, backed by the Mount of Olives, its name comes from the Greek "eliaon", which means olive grove...
Monastery of the Cross	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French		SK	GR			US	UK		The monastery of the cross is located in the valley of Rehavia (Valley of the Cross) in Jerusalem. It is a Greek Orthodox monastery built as a fortress. According to the Christian tradition, it was the site of the tree that was used to build a wooden cross: the cross of the crucifixion that Jesus carried during his difficult journey on Via

Episode Title	Content Type	Footage	Duration	Prod	LANGUAGE	RIGHTS WW	BROADCAST							Synopsis
Mount of Olives	Archeology / History	4K	26 min	2018	English, French		SK								The Mount of Olives is a hill, east of Jerusalem. Actually, it encompasses the two hills immediately north of it. Place is of the three monotheistic religions, we'll discover its tombs.
Saint Gerasimos & The Monastery of Deir Hijleh	Culture / Education	4K	26 min	2018	English, French				GR						Saint Gerasimos and The Monastery of Deir Hajla is a Greek-Orthodoxy Monastery located on the Judea Desert, north of the Dead Sea. The monastery originally dedicated to Our Lady of Kalamon (Greek for reeds) but was later renamed in honor of Gerasimos, who founded a nearby monastery that had been abandoned...
Tel Afek - Antipatris	Archeology / History	4K	26 min	2018	English, French										Antipatris is an abundant archaeological site located at the Mediterranean Israeli coast. The fortified city of Tel Afek, halfway between Jerusalem and Caesarea, is today in a calm and silent park. The site lies near the perennial springs of the Yarkon-River. It is now part of the Yarkon National Park in Israel. More than 6,000 years of successive cities have been built on the mound overlooking the springs of the Yarkon River....
The Good Samaritan Museum (Part 1)	Archeology / History	4K	26 min	2019	English										On the road from Jerusalem to the Dead Sea, discover the Good Samaritan Museum, an archaeological and historical site. This museum, which is the only mosaic museum in the country and one of only three in the world, has artefacts which were unearthed in Judea, Samaria and Gaza on display. You are in the area of Ma'ale Adumim (Red Heights), on the same road that pilgrims used to take on their way to Jerusalem, particularly those coming from the Galilee via the Jordan Valley and Jericho, in the footsteps of Jesus and John the Baptist...
The Good Samaritan Museum (Part 2)	Archeology / History	4K	26 min	2019	English										On the road from Jerusalem to the Dead Sea, discover the Good Samaritan Museum, an archaeological and historical site. This museum, which is the only mosaic museum in the country and one of only three in the world, has artefacts which were unearthed in Judea, Samaria and Gaza on display. You are in the area of Ma'ale Adumim (Red Heights), on the same road that pilgrims used to take on their way to Jerusalem, particularly those coming from the Galilee via the Jordan Valley and Jericho, in the footsteps of Jesus and John the Baptist...
The Taninim Stream Nature Reserve	Archeology / History	4K	26 min	2019	English										Here we are at Crocodilopolis, an ancient hellenistic settlement, at the mount of Taninim stream. If there were not several torrential downpours in 1992 and some strong storms in 1995, the Nahal Taninim Nature Reserve in Israel as we we know it today would not simply exist. But fortunately for us nature lovers, the water flowing in the sea near kibbutz Ma'agan Michael and Zichron Ya'akov was flooding every time the road from Tel Aviv to

26min Format

GR	Greece
NL	Netherlands
PL	Poland
SK	South Korea
UK	United Kingdom
USA	United States

3min Format

SEA = South Eastern Asia	Malaysia
	Philippines
	Indonesia
	Brunei
	Vietnam
	Thailand
	Myanmar
	Sri Lanka
	Maldives
	Cambodia
	Laos
	Nepal
	Bhutan
	Pakistan
	Bangladesh
Timor Leste
Mongolia	